Prosta Stream Ingredients

Prosta Stream is created from highly potent plant ingredients that include the following. According to the product's creator, these ingredients have been blended in the exact right proportions in order to deliver maximum benefits:

- Saw Palmetto – This is a powerful ingredient that is typically used in sexual health supplements. It helps overcome bladder control issues as well as improve sexual desire. This special ingredient is also known to alleviate hormonal imbalance and improve hair loss.
- Graviola Leaf – native in the forests of Latin America, this crucial ingredient has potent chemicals that kill harmful cancer cells while sparing healthy cells. Graviola leaf is also known to be a powerful antioxidant.
- Japanese Mushrooms – this is yet another key ingredient in Prosta Stream. Japanese mushrooms such as Shiitake, Reishi, and Maitake tackle oxidative stress and prevent the formation of free radicals in the body. These powerful ingredients are also known to improve metabolism.

- Cats Claw – this is a well-known herb that is native in the Amazon rainforest. It helps ward off infections, reduce inflammations, and even prevent serious diseases such as cancer.
- Tomato Fruit Powder – this Prostream ingredient is a powerful antioxidant and stress reliever. It helps prevent the formation of prostate cancer and other health issues.
- Natural Green Tea – rich in bioactive compounds, natural green tea is known to improve brain function, increase fat burning, and prevent cardiovascular disease. It reduces oxidative stress and promotes optimal prostate size and health.

Prostastream pricing

The creator of Prostastream recommends that you take this natural health supplement over a duration of three to six months. For this reason, they are offering a tiered pricing model that is influenced by the quantity you are ordering:

- 30 days supply you get one bottle at $69 instead of $99
- 90 days supply you get three bottles at $177 rather than $297
- 180 days supply you get six bottles at $294 instead of $594.

Compared to other supplements that promise to do the same thing, Prostastream is affordably priced for its superior quality. This product offers an easy way to overcome the anxiety that men have over their prostate and sexual health as old age approaches.

Prostastream discount

The good news is that Prostastream is already discounted. You get whopping $30 discount if you purchase the smallest order quantity, which is the one month's supply bottle. Those who buy the 90 days supply get to save $120 while those who get the 180 days supply save a total of $300. Furthermore, the manufacturer of this product is currently offering a 60-day money back guarantee. This means you get to try your Prostastream order over two months and still get your money back if for some reason you are not thrilled by the outcome.
